SYNOPSIS

This report document my involvement in the death of Martha Barela. Please refer to narrative for further details.

NARRATIVE

On June 17, 2015 at approximately 0709 hours I, Officer Ronnie Carrillo of the New Mexico State Police uniform division, stationed in Chama New Mexico was advised by dispatch of an unattended death. Dispatch advised the subjects will be standing by at the Giant gas station. Dispatch advised the male subjects have the body in the vehicle.

Upon my arrival I spoke with Patrick Barela who is the husband to the deceased identified as Martha Barela. Mr. Barela stated they had been camping in Apache canyon since Monday. Mr. Barela stated his wife had been sick and was sweating bad. Mr. Barela stated he thought it had to do with her being diabetic. Mr. Barela stated he gave her some juice and candy and stated a few hours later she was fine. Mr. Barela stated they went to bed at approximately 11:00 pm. While they were asleep Mr. Barela stated his wife had her arm around his waist. Mr. Barela stated around 0400 am he turned around and felt her arm to be cold to the touch. Mr. Barela stated he got up to check on her and noticed she was not breathing. Mr. Barela stated he ran outside and started his generator to get some light. Mr. Barela stated he ran to his friend's camper to wake them up and asked for help. Mr. Barela stated they ran back into the camper and he started CPR on his wife. Mr. Barela stated she was dead. Mr. Barela stated they were camping several miles back in the canyon and did not know what to do. Mr. Barela stated due to the roadway being so bad they loaded his wife in the truck and drove her to Chama to get some help. EMS arrived a short time later.

I advised dispatch to send the Medical Investigator to the clinic in Tierra Amarilla where EMS would be transported Mrs. Barela.

OMI Carlos Gonzales arrived on scene. Mr. Gonzales pronounced Mrs. Martha Barela deceased at 0940 hours. Mr. Gonzales advised me he did not observed any suspicious circumstances and stated Mrs. Barela passed away of natural causes.

Devargas Funeral Home arrived on scene. Mrs. Barela was then transported to Devargas Funeral Home in Espanola.

This concludes my investigation.
